Private and public services

Services can be divided into public and private <sup>právní</sup>. Public services are provided <sup>průběžně</sup> <sup>poskytovány</sup> by the government. They are not commercial services. These services differ from other services in that authorities <sup>orgány</sup> have a responsibility to ensure <sup>inš</sup> <sup>zajistit</sup> them for everyone. I am sure that we all benefit from public services. We regularly use public services, like transport, education, water and energy supply <sup>zásobování</sup>, broadcasting <sup>vysílání</sup>, and communication services. Other services which I need but which I don't often use are police and fire services.

Private services are often more expensive and have better quality. I go shopping almost every day, use internet a lot, not just for school stuff <sup>staf</sup> <sup>věci</sup> but for fun too, sometimes I use the services in restaurants or pubs and banks and hairdresser's.

Restaurant

You need to make a reservation for a table here at least a day in advance <sup>alespoň den předem</sup>. The service here is excellent. There is a good choice of starters <sup>předkrmy</sup> and main courses <sup>hlavní jídla</sup>.

Health club

There is excellent facilities, usually with gyms, a swimming pool and a sauna. After burning up spálení all your energy, you can go to the café, where they serve good nutritious výživné food.

Town hall (radnice)

This building is in the middle of the town, and deals zabývá se with civil administration. There is mayor mej starosta and town councillors kanslous radní all have their offices here.

The job center

If you suddenly find yourself unemployed, this is the place to go. But if you go here every week, still you haven't confidence <sup>jistotu</sup> that you will find a job, because nowadays it is hard.

Local park

There is good to walk the dog or with friends to relax. The kids love playing on the swings <sup>houpačky</sup> and roundabouts <sup>kolotoče</sup> or feeding the ducks in the pond.

Law courts

Taxi rank

There's always a long queue <sup>kju</sup> here after the pubs and clubs have closed. You should make sure you have enough money for your fare <sup>jízdé</sup> and a tip for the driver. Disadvantage <sup>dysadvantyč</sup> <sup>nevýhoda</sup> of taxi is that taxi is more expensive then public transport.

Museum

There is an interesting art gallery and a large and fascinating display <sup>zobrazení</sup> of artefacts. The objects here come from all over the world and many are considered <sup>považovány</sup> to be priceless
