

Otázka: Unesco heritage (CZ)

Jazyk: Angličtina

Přidal(a): Nix

Czech republic - Unesco heritage

- We have 12 places in Czech Republic, which are in Unesco heritage and 6 nature reservations.
- Czech Republic has rich history.
- It means Organization for educational, science and culture.
- UNESCO is an agency of the United Nations.
- The Czech Republic is signed in the 1991.

Český Krumlov - historical center

- There are a castle and a summer residence Bellaria with revolving auditorium.
- Other important monument is the Gothic Church of St.Vitus.
- There is a lot of historical buildings.
- This buildings are Gothic and Renaissance origin.
- It is medieval town.

Brno - Tugendhat Villa

- It was built in the first half 20 century in Brno.
- It is the functionalist style.
- It is named after owner.

- It is first monument of modern architecture in the CR.
- Villa has glass walls and it has three floors.

Olomouc - Holy Trinity Column (Sloup nejsvatější trojice)

- This memorial column is built in the 18th century.
- It is a baroque.
- It has 35 metres.
- It is decorated with many religious statues.

Lednicko-Valtický areál

- There is a romantic castle and largest park in the CR with English gardens.
- Castle Lednice is baroque and neogothic build.

Holašovice - Village

- Holašovice is a traditional village in South Bohemia.
- There are a lot of high-quality buildings from the 18th and 19th centuries in a style known as „Folk Baroque“.

Kutná Hora - historical center

- Kutná hora listed in 1995.
- The historical centre is an architectural jewel.
- There is a Church of St. Barbora and Cathedral of Our Lady Marie in Sedlec, which rebuilt in the baroque gothic style.

Prague - historical center

- Each part of city of was developed from the 10th century.
- There are a lot of churches and palaces, for example Prague Castle, the Cathedral of St. Vitus and Charles Bridge.

Žďár nad Sázavou - Chuch St. Jana Nepomuckého on the Green mountain

- It was built on shape of a star.
- Around is a cemetery.
- The style is Baroque gothic.

Litomyšl - renesance castle and historical centre

- Bedřich Smetana was born in Litomyšl.
- It was built in Renaissance style.
- On the 500 metre long square can be found the Gothic town hall and a number of Renaissance and Baroque houses.
- There is the renaissance castle from the 16th century.

Třebíč - The Jewish Quarter and the Basilica of St. Procopius

- The historical centre includes The Basilica of St. Procopius.
- The Jewish Quarter and the Basilica is example Christian and Jewish culture.

Telč - historical center

- Telč is situated at Moravia.
- The historical centre of the city, surrounded by fish ponds and city gates.
- The city was build on the original foundations from a big fire.
- There are a lot of the renaissance and baroque houses with arcades and sgrafitti.

- There is also a chateaux.

Kroměříž - Arcibiskups castle a Podzámecká garden

- The castle was built in the 17th century.
- It is residence Baroque style.
- There is an art collection.
- His gardens include the Podzamecká garden.